	Question: Comments on course effectiveness
	There were times that course content appeared a little jumbled to be able to fit it into the time allotted. It wasn't terrible, but it could use some strengthening.
	The examples we went over in class were great, but when we got to the assignments or the tests it seemed as though the musical examples were a bit more vague.
	Dr. Dahn did a fantastic job running this class. He was very willing to listen to our questions and treated every contribution as valuable. Sometimes I felt like the assignments and midterm and final were really hard compared to what we covered in class.
	The format of the readings was very helpful. I liked how well it facilitated learning, and the format of responses as well.
	1. more than one text was used so that it was clear that there is not only one way of discussing this material 2. we started from the simplest forms and went from there to more complex forms so that the better known sonata form was more easily understood
	Question: Instructor Comments
DAHN	Dr. Dahn is very good at explaining difficult theoretical concepts by using demonstration and discussion as effective tools. Coming to class was unlike any other experience I've had. Rather than listening to a lecture, we all worked together to reach a greater understanding of the course content. I absolutely loved it!
DAHN	Dr. Dahn was a great instructor. Very patient and willing to work with us until we understood the concept he was trying to teach. One of the best I've had.
DAHN	I thought this instructor was truly fantastic! He absolutely knew what he was talking about and demonstrated excellent pedagogy. I hope that he becomes a permanent part of this school for a long time to come. I can't wait to take more courses from him.
DAHN	1. he used assignments for discussion points so they really were used as instruments of learning 2. I would have preferred more advance time as to which pieces were to be used for assignments, quizzes, and exams.

	Question: Comments on course effectiveness
	The learn by doing approach was very helpful. I liked the orchestration projects, and they made the information from class applicable. The format and organization of the course seemed very logical.
	It was great! a little slow at first concerning strings, but it became one of my favorite classes.
	I loved playing in class, getting direct feedback, and learning about the instruments from my peers.
	Question: Instructor Comments
DAHN	Great job! just work on appearing more confident in what you know about instruments you don't actually know alot about. you know, faking it, acting.
DAHN	I felt comfortable asking questions and seeking feedback. The instructor was mindful of the students and their needs and did a good job adjusting the course accordingly.
DAHN	I always admired Dr. Dahn's preparation for each class meeting. I liked how there was a good balance between presentations and application exercises - i.e., him passing out a score, asking us how we might orchestrate a phrase, then looking at what the greats did with the same passage. I think in the future, Dr. Dahn should bring in some of his scores, OR it would be cool to see him write something to be played in class alongside our projects.

	Question: Comments on course effectiveness
	Everything was super interesting, and a wide variety of materials, readings, and musical examples were provided to go along with our studies. The assignments were challenging but not too difficult. The feedback we got was always excellent, although I would have liked more feedback on later assignments.
	I loved everything we learned but I would've liked to do more analysis and receive feedback.
	I thought all of our readings, analysis assignments, and the chorale and final analysis project were well structured and effective for helping us learn. I liked how he let us give input on what we wanted to study.
	Question: Instructor Comments
DAHN	Amazing knowledge and good presentation of material. Instructor was easy to talk to and provided in class participation
DAHN	The instructor created a learning environment where we all felt free to contribute to class discussions. The instructor listened to our ideas.
DAHN	Prof Dahn is incredibly knowledgeable and passionate about the material. He is always interested in hearing students' ideas and willing to help students learn.
