	Question: Comments on course effectiveness
	The Complete Musician is a mess of a textbook. It over-explains things it doesn't need to then doesn't explain instructions for workbooks as clear as it could be. Didn't provide many examples as well to refer to for the workbook.
	teaching, handouts
	Working through the book and supplemental materials helped gain a better understanding of the material.
	Question: Instructor Comments
DAHN	teaching
DAHN	Dr. Dahn is very clear and obviously wants his students to succeed. He is good at explaining subjects when students are confused.

	Question: Comments on course effectiveness
	This course is hard. I though the professor did a nice job of trying to point things out that might help us and play things over and over again. I think it may have helped me to see what i was listening to written out on the board.
	loved this class.
	great instructor and organized class
	Question: Instructor Comments
DAHN	Professor Dahn was great, he tried to help us as best as he could. The material moved a bit too fast for me, but i recognize that's probably the mandatory material for the course, I just would have liked to take things slower.
DAHN	obvious knowledge about material taught, and very effective class periods
DAHN	I wish grades were updated more regularly and canvas was used more often so I know where I stand, but this was a great class. Excellent teacher.

	Question: Comments on course effectiveness
	The analyzing of Schubert musical pieces were awesome. Very interactive and put our brains to the test.
	I really appreciated all the hands on work we had in class and for homework. It allowed for us to really understand the concepts we were learning. I also think looking at actual music as opposed to only working on made up scores from the workbook helped as well.
	Professor Dahn wrote his own supplementary worksheets for our class, and honestly, those were the most effective material for me. I also appreciated the many excerpts/handouts of pieces that we analyzed as a class. Very, very effective.
	He was able to adjust his schedule easily and gave us many handouts that helped.
	Analyzing pieces in class together was helpful, especially when we could hear the piece and how it functioned. The class was well organized and no time was wasted.
	The instructor provided many analysis examples outside of the text, which was helpful. The constant practice of different skills was helpful.
	Loved the material, and loved the instructor. I often stayed after class just to discuss/learn.

DAHN	The instructor was always willing to help students outside of class, and creat ed a positive environment.
DAHN	He encouraged out of the box thinking and welcomed other thoughts and opinions on Analysis and interpretation. He worked with the students to make sure they understood the concepts taught by explaining them several different ways.
DAHN	He answered question and entertained various interpretations and opinions with a great deal of respect.
