	Question: Comments on course effectiveness
	He presented and helped us all through individually to aid us because we all worked at different paces. Hands down the best teacher within the school of music.
	We studied five different types of post tonal composition. We were given several examples of each type with both audio and scores that we could study to help make our own compositions more effective. The course was very effective.
	1. Audio and visual materials 2. Demonstrations of special effects on instruments, along with listening to the works of the other student composers, expressing our thoughts, all of that was very efficient.
	Question: Instructor Comments
DAHN	He was extremely helpful with what we needed as students. Hands down the best teacher within the school of music.
DAHN	Dr. Dahn encouraged participation from everyone in the class. He gave several examples of compositions which helped to inspire our own ideas. He also taught us how to do the specific type of composition and gave constructive criticism, with suggestions of how we could improve. I learned a great deal!
DAHN	I enjoyed the composition seminar concert.
DAHN	1. Individual meetings were very effective for our progress/improvement with our compositions. 2. Regarding the percussion piece, it was very informative to get the opportunity to try hands-on the non-pitched instruments with professionals.

	Concepts were taught in consecutive order. Class was really organized.
	Question: Instructor Comments
DAHN	Made sure everyone had a very good grasp of the concepts before moving onto the next one. Hands down the best teacher within the school of music.
DAHN	He could explain the concepts in a number of ways to make sure everyone understood.
DAHN	There were a lot of tricky concepts in this course that were presented in a very clear way. Dr. Dahn is one of the few professors I've had that cared more about his students learning and understanding the material than just memorizing things for a test.
DAHN	Luke is very organized with the course material and course objectives are clearly stated. Luke takes extra time to help students succeed.
DAHN	The teacher is so kind and genuinely. Great person. It would be the biggest mistake the u ever made to not rehire him for another 3 years. I wish that we would have more assignments more often like every class to effectively grasp all the material.
DAHN	Dr. Dahn is a very good teacher. He cares about the students and their success. I learned a great deal this semester!

	Question: Comments on course effectiveness
	I really appreciated that we stuck with the required texts instead of using a bunch of outside texts - it made things easier for in-class participation and discussions The reading responses were somewhat difficult at times because of the textbook we were using - often I'd spend more time trying to decipher what the author was trying to say rather than learning the concept behind it The activities in class were directly related to our graded homework and projects, and were extremely valuable in helping us do well on the assignments and learn the concepts
	Over all structure and good teaching methods.
	Lots of practice together, on the board or on the paper, with reviews, feedback about our readings (Gauldin's) was very useful, along with the Anthology's book. Wish we had spent more time with the Anthology.
	Question: Instructor Comments
DAHN	Dr. Dahn always gave good feedback, and would always take the time to make sure it was high-quality. He's very good at 1-on-1 teaching, and at addressing student questions in a respectful and thoughtful way. He also handled difficult questions well, and if he didn't know the answer would be honest about that but return the next class with an answer. He was very knowledgeable about Bach's works, and used that knowledge to benefit the class. Often he'd bring in an example not in the texts that illustrated the concept clearly. My only concern was that he had a hard time remembering which chorale/fugue etc. it was, which would at times detract from the point (although that is to be expected at times when the discussion took a different turn than expected)
DAHN	I enjoyed the in class composition exercises. I also enjoyed the mid-term and final projects.

DAHN

Excellent pedagogue, professional, knowledgeable, attentive, flexible, non-assuming, patient with all, making every student feel accepted as such, and getting the best out of them through openness and kindness.
